

WHERE IS MY PET?

Author: Tebogo Maganye

Illustrator: Michael Sagikwa

Nia's pet chameleon likes to hide, which makes it very hard to find.
What should I do? Nia wonders.
Then, she has an idea!

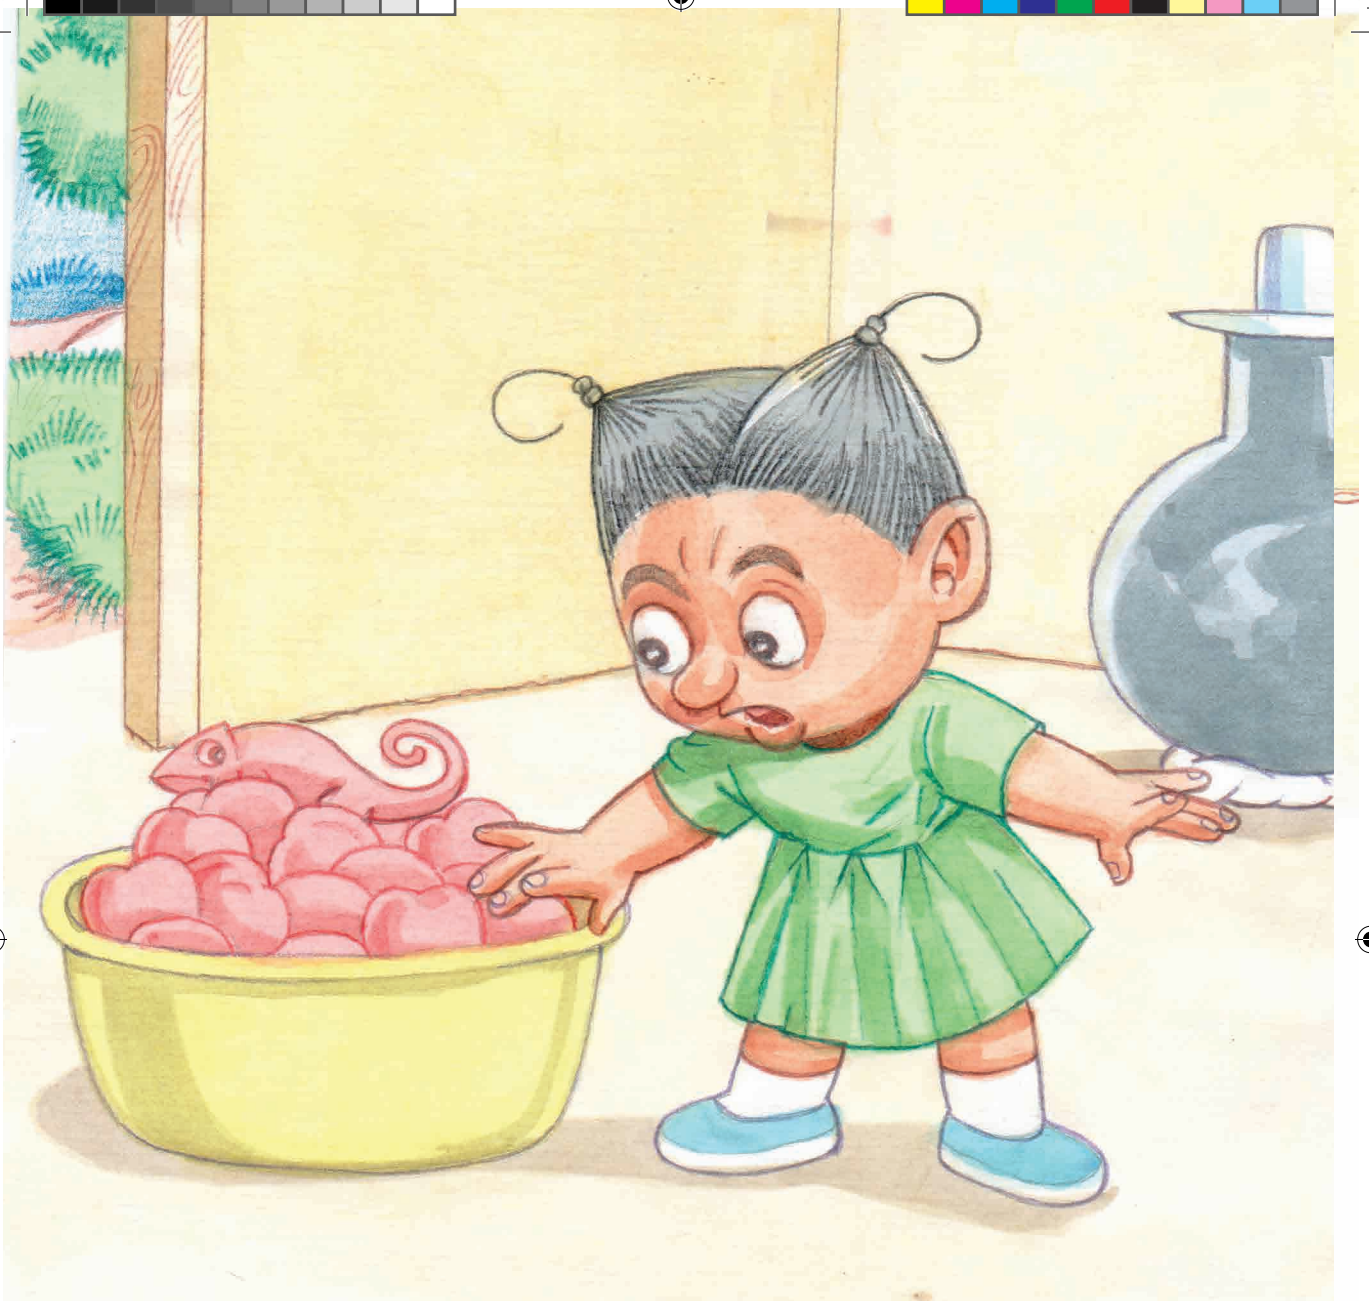

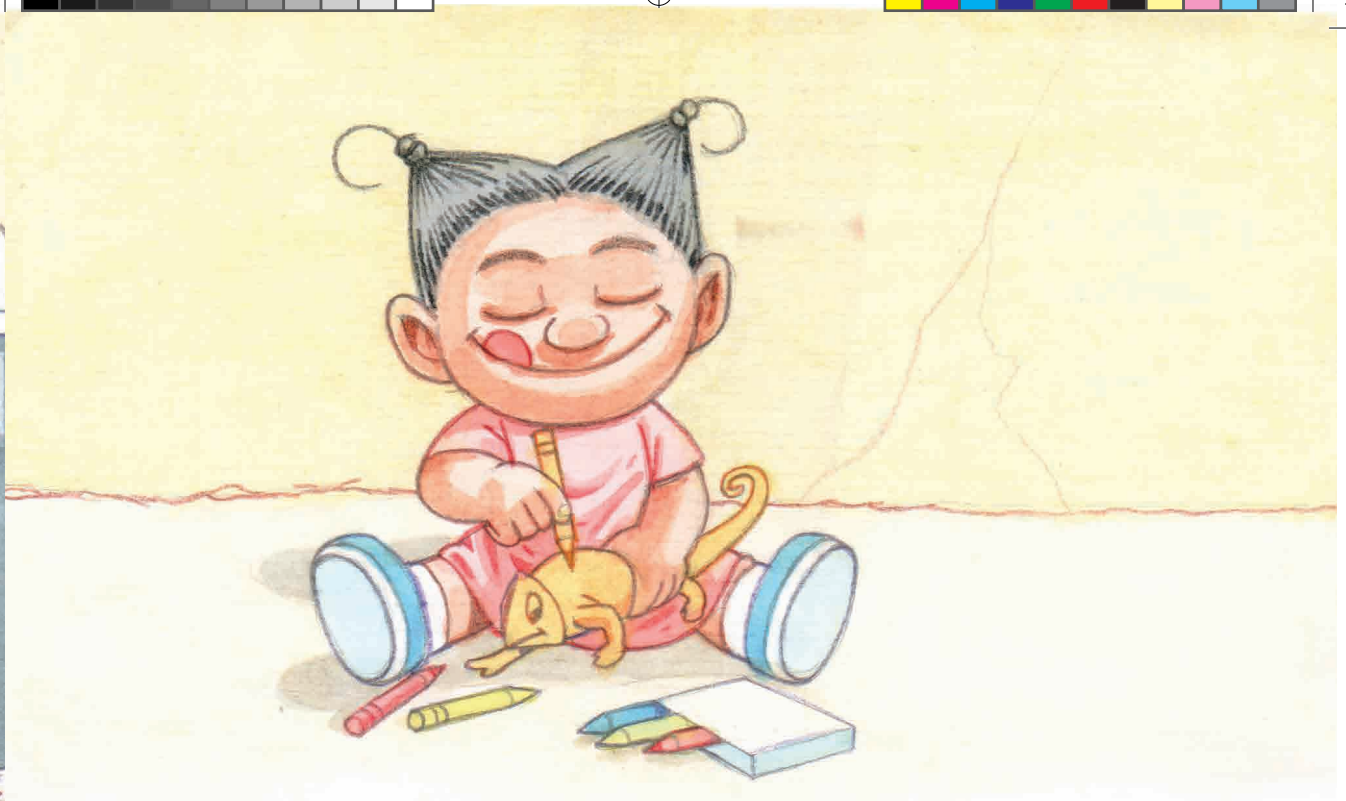

On Monday, she decides to color her chameleon red. This will help her find it easily.

“Where are you?”
Nia calls.

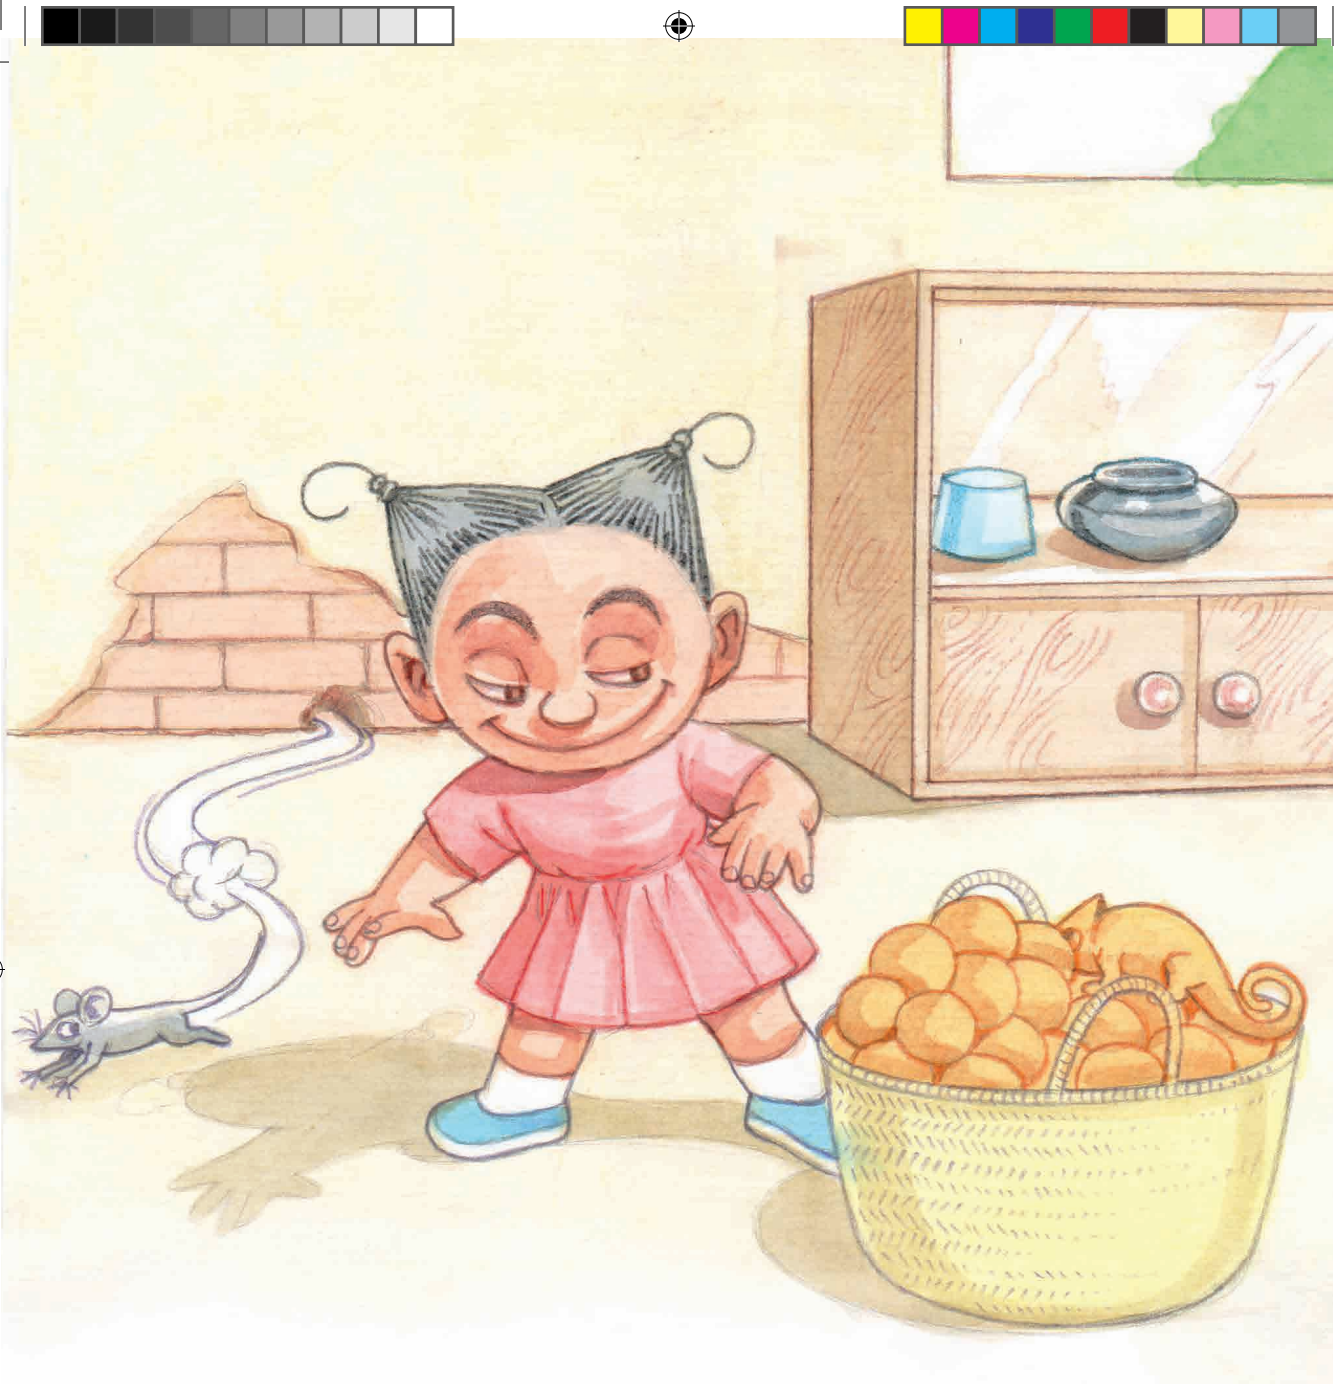

“I’m here, resting
on the red apples.”

On Tuesday, she colors it orange.
This will help her spot it anywhere!

Her pet hides in the oranges.

On Wednesday, she colors the chameleon yellow.

*When my pet is a bright color,
thinks Nia, I will find it easily.*

“Look, I’m here!”

On Thursday, she decides to color it green.

Can you see where Nia's
pet has hidden itself?

On Friday, she colors it blue.

Nia's pet hides on a painting hanging on the wall.

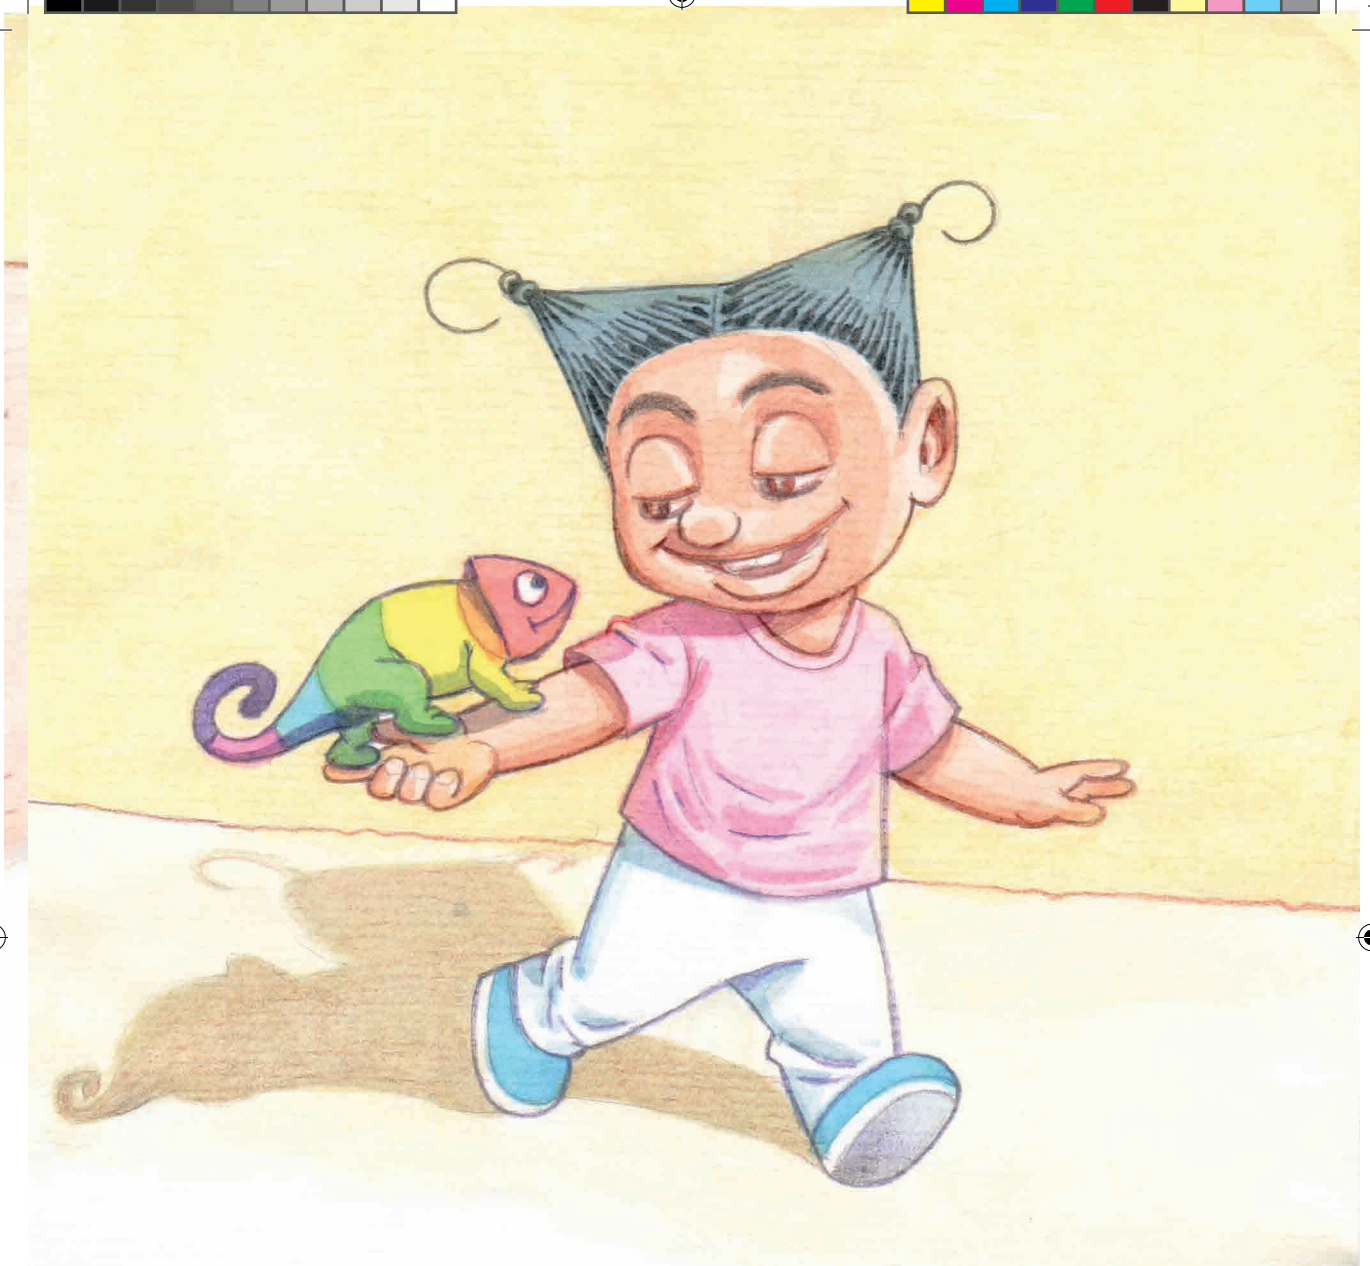

On Saturday, she colors it purple.

The chameleon hides on a plate of grapes.

On Sunday, Nia decides to color her pet with all the colors of the rainbow.

Ooh! Now Nia's pet
has nowhere to hide.
